2005 GIFT CATALOG

UNITED STATES MINT

Dear Collector:

On behalf of the United States Mint, I am pleased to present our 2005 Fall Gift Catalog. On the following pages, you will find magnificent examples of the coin-maker's craft.

Presenting this collection of coins and medals in the fall of the year has become a tradition for the United States Mint, and, as you can see by the images chosen for the cover of this catalog, we are saluting another great American tradition: baseball. Both coin collecting and baseball are celebrated national pastimes that bridge generations and celebrate our values and ideals.

Included among our selection of bronze medals in this catalog is one that recognizes Jackie Robinson, who broke Major League Baseball's color barrier when he took the field in 1947. In addition, we offer medals, struck by the United States Mint, that honor Pope John Paul II and President George W. Bush.

This season's catalog includes other products that reflect our finest work. From the intrinsic value of our precious metal American Eagle Proof Coins, to the artistic mastery represented by both the 50 State Quarters® Program and the Westward Journey Nickel Series™, there is something here for everyone.

Our annual, recurring sets in both proof and uncirculated condition are included along with both of this year's exciting commemorative coins; the Chief Justice John Marshall Silver Dollar, commemorating our Nation's most accomplished jurist, and the Marine Corps 230th Anniversary Silver Dollar, which pays tribute to one of the most venerable fighting forces the world has ever seen.

To our returning customers, thank you for your continued enthusiasm and support. At the same time, welcome to those who may be ordering genuine United States coinage for the first time.

Sincerely,

David Lebryk
Acting Director
United States Mint

CHIEF JUSTICE JOHN MARSHALL SILVER DOLLAR

5J1 Proof Silver Dollar $39.00
5J2 Uncirculated Silver Dollar $35.00

The United States Mint is proud to present the Chief Justice John Marshall Silver Dollar. Authorized by Public Law 108-290 dated August 6, 2004, and struck in 90% silver, this magnificent coin commemorates the 250th anniversary of the Chief Justice's birth, on September 24, 1755.

The coin features on its obverse a rendition of a portrait of Marshall originally executed by French painter Charles-Balthazar-Julien Fevret de Saint-Memin in March of 1808.

The coin's reverse features a view of the Old Supreme Court Chamber, located inside the U.S. Capitol, in the wing which houses the United States Senate.

MARINE CORPS 230TH ANNIVERSARY SILVER DOLLAR

Struck from brilliant 90% silver, this stunning coin features on its obverse a rendition of Associated Press photographer Joe Rosenthal's historic photograph, which shows the raising of an American flag by the United States Marines atop Mount Suribachi on the Japanese island of Iwo Jima. Taken on February 23, 1945, it is believed to be the most reproduced image in the history of photography.

The coin's reverse features an engraving of the Eagle, Globe and Anchor, official emblem of the United States Marine Corps. This coin was authorized by Public Law 108-291 on August 6, 2004.

5C1 Proof Silver Dollar $39.00
5C2 Uncirculated Silver Dollar $35.00

2005 UNITED STATES MINT AMERICAN LEGACY COLLECTION™

Product design shown is a prototype.

For a numismatic product that covers all the bases, the 2005 United States Mint American Legacy Collection can't be beat. Reminiscent of the United States Mint's Prestige Set issued in years past, this remarkable new product contains proof versions of all 2005-dated circulating coins, as well as one each of the proof Chief Justice John Marshall Silver Dollar and the proof Marine Corps 230th Anniversary Silver Dollar.
Limit: Up to 100,000 sets.

5J3 American Legacy Collection $135.00

GIFT GIVING

Throughout the year, as many of us proudly bear witness to important events, and the lives of those we love reach significant milestones, our thoughts will turn to marking the occasion with a gift.

At times like these, the United States Mint has exactly what you need. Purchasing genuine coins and medals produced by the skilled artisans of the United States Mint sends a clear message that this is a day to remember.

It may be to welcome the birth of a beautiful child, honor a blessed union, or to celebrate a great achievement in academics, athletics or personal development. Whatever the reason, the United States Mint has the gift you're looking for.

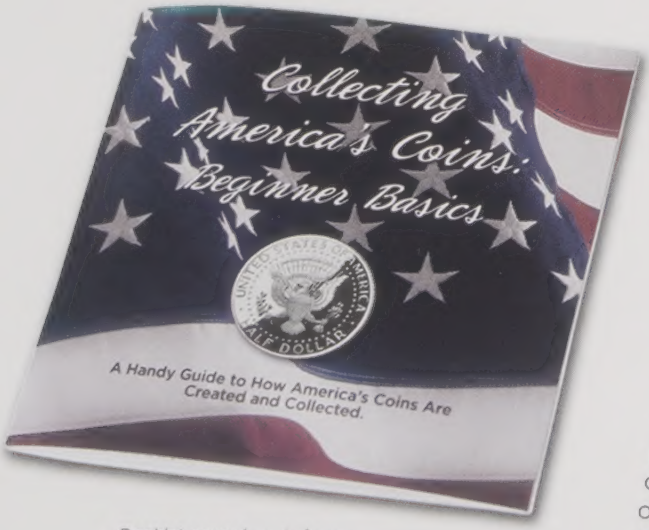
COLLECTING AMERICA'S COINS: BEGINNER BASICS



Booklet cover insert shown.

The United States Mint is pleased to offer this new, educational set for those who are just beginning to explore the world of coin collecting. Coin collecting is a fascinating pastime with a language all its own, and the informative booklet offered with the set provides a helpful introduction to this exciting hobby.

To highlight coin manufacturing processes, this set includes a one-cent planchet, a pair of circulating one-cent coins, a pair of satin-finish uncirculated dimes, and a proof-condition half-dollar. This set illustrates many features and finishes found throughout our Nation's coinage. The booklet also briefly discusses the history, design and manufacturing processes that have contributed to more than two centuries of American coinage.
